PURCHASES AND ORDERS

Products and services may be purchased directly from us or through independent retailers, marketplaces, distributors, payment processors, publishing platforms, fulfillment companies, app stores, or other third parties.

1. The information you provide is accurate.
2. You are authorized to use the selected payment method.
3. Your purchase complies with applicable laws.
4. You are legally permitted to purchase and use the applicable product or service.

An order confirmation, payment authorization, or automated email does not necessarily mean that we have accepted the order. We may reject, limit, cancel, or request additional information concerning an order for reasons including:

1. Product unavailability.
2. Incorrect pricing or product information.
3. Suspected fraud or unauthorized payment activity.
4. Technical or inventory errors.

Prices, features, product descriptions, subscription terms, promotions, and availability may change at any time before an order is accepted.

We attempt to provide accurate pricing and product information, but typographical, technical, publishing, configuration, or data-entry errors may occur. We reserve the right to correct errors and cancel or adjust affected orders as permitted by law.

We do not control and are not responsible for a payment provider's systems, processing times, security procedures, account restrictions, holds, reversals, chargebacks, currency conversions, or other practices.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTIONS

We attempt to describe our products and services accurately. However, descriptions, photographs, illustrations, screenshots, dimensions, colors, page counts, features, specifications, availability, and other details may contain minor differences or errors.

Colors and visual appearance may vary based on:

1. Printing methods.
2. Paper and materials.
3. Display settings.
4. Lighting.
5. Device type.
6. Browser settings.
7. Production updates.
8. Manufacturing tolerances.

Unless expressly promised in writing, images and mockups are illustrative and may not represent the exact final appearance of a product.

THIRD-PARTY RETAILERS AND MARKETPLACES

Products bearing our brands or containing our content may be sold by third-party retailers, booksellers, marketplaces, distributors, publishers, resellers, or fulfillment providers.

Purchases made through a third party are also subject to that third party's:

1. Terms of sale.
2. Privacy policy.
3. Shipping policy.
4. Return policy.
5. Refund policy.
6. Marketplace rules.
7. Customer service procedures.

Questions concerning payment, delivery, returns, refunds, taxes, damaged shipments, or account issues for a third-party purchase should generally be directed first to the company that processed or fulfilled the transaction.

We are not responsible for the independent acts, omissions, policies, representations, inventory, delivery performance, pricing, account decisions, or technical systems of third-party sellers or marketplaces.

PRINTED BOOKS AND PUBLICATIONS

Our printed books and publications may combine traditional printed content with QR codes, short links, search links, prompts, references, online resources, videos, databases, iPortal Pages, or other digital features.

The purchase of a printed publication provides ownership of that physical copy. It does not transfer ownership of:

1. The underlying copyrighted content.
2. Our trademarks or branding.
3. Our websites or software.
4. Our QR code or short-link systems.
5. Our databases or digital collections.
6. Our proprietary organization, selection, arrangement, or presentation of information.
7. Any third-party content referenced by the publication.

You may generally read, display, resell, lend, or give away a lawfully purchased physical copy, subject to applicable law. You may not reproduce, republish, distribute, scan, upload, transmit, or create unauthorized copies of substantial portions of the publication.

You may not remove, conceal, alter, or misrepresent copyright notices, trademark notices, disclaimers, authorship information, publisher information, QR codes, access restrictions, or other proprietary notices contained in a publication.

LIVING PUBLICATIONS

Some of our books and publications may be described as living publications, living books, phygital publications, dynamically connected publications, or similar terms.

A living publication combines a fixed printed product with digital resources that may be changed, expanded, reorganized, corrected, redirected, replaced, or discontinued after the physical publication is printed.

The phrase "Printed Once. Updated Forever.", or similar language, describes the intended capability and design of the associated digital experience. It is not an unconditional promise that every link, feature, resource, website, platform, or update will remain available permanently.

Digital resources associated with a living publication may change for reasons including:

1. Improving usefulness or organization.
2. Correcting errors.

3. Replacing outdated or unavailable resources.
4. Responding to changes made by third-party platforms.
5. Adding new educational or reference materials.
6. Improving security or technical performance.
7. Complying with legal requirements.
8. Preventing fraud, misuse, or harmful activity.
9. Changing business, licensing, or operational needs.

A later printing, edition, or digital update may differ from an earlier printing or edition. We do not guarantee that all editions, printings, users, or access dates will display identical content or link destinations.

QR CODES

Our books, websites, advertisements, packaging, documents, products, and services may contain QR codes.

Scanning a QR code may direct you to:

1. A Company-operated website.
2. An iPortal Page.
3. A short link.
4. A search engine query.
5. A video or media platform.
6. A retailer or marketplace.
7. A government or educational resource.
8. A third-party website.
9. A dynamically selected or updated destination.

You are not required to scan a QR code to use the printed portions of a publication unless the product description clearly states otherwise.

To scan a QR code, you may need compatible equipment, software, internet access, a mobile data plan, an account with a third-party provider, or permission to use a particular service. You are responsible for obtaining and maintaining these items and for any associated costs.

QR codes may not work in every environment or with every device. Factors outside our control may affect scanning, including:

1. Camera quality.
2. Lighting.
3. Print quality.
4. Physical damage.
5. Internet connectivity.
6. Browser compatibility.
7. Device settings.
8. Security software.
9. Third-party platform restrictions.
10. Changes in technical standards.

Before following a QR code or entering personal information, you should review the destination address and use reasonable security precautions.

You may not alter, replace, cover, manipulate, reproduce, or distribute one of our QR codes in a manner that falsely suggests Company authorization or directs users to an unauthorized, misleading, harmful, or fraudulent destination.

DYNAMIC QR CODE DESTINATIONS

Some QR codes may use redirect technology that allows the destination to change without reprinting the QR code.

We may change a QR code destination when reasonably necessary or at our sole discretion to:

1. Replace a broken link.
2. Provide a more useful or current resource.
3. Move content to a new website or platform.
4. Correct an error.
5. Improve security.
6. Comply with legal requirements.
7. Remove inappropriate or unavailable material.
8. Improve the reader or user experience.
9. Support updated Company products or services.

Although we generally intend updated destinations to remain reasonably related to the original subject or purpose, we do not guarantee that a destination will remain identical, continuously available, or unchanged.

SHORT LINKS

We may operate branded, customized, abbreviated, intelligent, or dynamically managed short links.

A short link may redirect to Company content, a third-party resource, a search result, a retailer, a media platform, or another online destination.

Short links may be updated, redirected, suspended, restricted, reassigned, or disabled when reasonably necessary or at our sole discretion for:

1. Security.
2. Maintenance.
3. Legal compliance.
4. Fraud prevention.
5. Brand protection.
6. Technical changes.
7. Removal of unavailable or harmful destinations.
8. Business or operational reasons.

The visible wording of a short link is intended to help identify, organize, or describe a resource. It is not a guarantee that every destination will contain a particular item, remain available, or be controlled by the Company.

You may not use, copy, imitate, manipulate, register, distribute, advertise, or present one of our short links in a misleading manner or in connection with unlawful, fraudulent, deceptive, defamatory, infringing, harmful, or unauthorized activity.

iPORTAL PAGES AND iSEARCH PAGES AND DIGITAL RESOURCE PAGES

iPortal Pages and iSearch Pages and similar digital resource pages may organize links, prompts, searches, categories, reference materials, tools, videos, documents, services, or other resources relating to a topic, profession, industry, person, place, period, event, product, or area of interest.

An iPortal Page and iSearch Pages are generally intended to function as an organizational, research, educational, discovery, or navigation resource.

The presence, position, category, description, rating, label, or inclusion of a resource on an iPortal Page or iSearch Pages does not necessarily mean that:

1. We own the resource.
2. We control the resource.
3. We endorse the resource.
4. The resource endorses us.
5. The resource is suitable for every user.
6. The resource is complete or error-free.
7. The resource will remain available.
8. The resource has been independently verified.

We may add, remove, replace, reorganize, rename, rank, categorize, or update resources at any time.

Some iPortal Pages or iSearch Pages or resource collections may require payment, registration, a subscription, an access code, a license, or other authorization.

You may not bypass or attempt to bypass access restrictions, authentication systems, subscription requirements, technical limitations, rate limits, or other protective measures.

DIGITAL PRODUCTS AND DOWNLOADS

Digital products may include PDFs, digital books, reports, research materials, templates, prompts, databases, files, guides, graphics, videos, software, or other electronically delivered content.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, purchasing or accessing a digital product gives you a limited, personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable, and revocable license to use that product for its intended purpose.

You may not:

1. Resell or redistribute a digital product.
2. Upload it to a public or shared file service.
3. Provide it to unauthorized users.
4. Remove proprietary notices.
5. Use it to create a competing product or database.
6. Use automated systems to extract substantial portions of it.
7. Represent it as your own work.
8. Use it in a manner that infringes intellectual property or other rights.

Additional license terms may accompany a particular digital product and will control if they conflict with this general license.

USER SUBMISSIONS

Our services may allow you to submit questions, messages, comments, reviews, prompts, files, documents, photographs, images, feedback, research materials, account information, or other content.

You retain whatever ownership rights you lawfully hold in your original submissions.

By submitting content for us to process, display, store, transmit, analyze, or use in providing a requested service, you grant Blue Line Tech Help LLC a limited, non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to use, reproduce, process, transmit, format, adapt, and display that content only as reasonably necessary to:

NO EMPLOYMENT, HUMAN RESOURCES, OR HIRING ADVICE

Employment, hiring, termination, compensation, benefits, workplace, background-check, employee-monitoring, and human-resources information is provided only for general educational and research purposes.

Employment laws vary by jurisdiction and may impose specific notice, consent, recordkeeping, nondiscrimination, privacy, wage, leave, and accommodation requirements.

You should consult qualified legal and human-resources professionals before making decisions that affect employees, applicants, contractors, or workplace rights.

AI-generated rankings, recommendations, summaries, or classifications should not be used as the sole basis for employment or other high-impact decisions.

NO ENGINEERING, SAFETY, OR TECHNICAL CERTIFICATION

Technical, construction, electrical, mechanical, cybersecurity, software, architectural, scientific, manufacturing, or engineering-related information is provided for general educational and research purposes unless a separate written agreement states otherwise.

Our materials do not constitute:

Users should maintain independent safety procedures and appropriate emergency resources.

AI LIMITATIONS

Artificial intelligence systems have significant limitations.

AI-generated or AI-assisted content may:

1. Contain false statements.
2. Invent names, facts, sources, quotations, cases, laws, studies, links, statistics, or events.
3. Misinterpret documents or questions.
4. Omit important information.
5. Use outdated information.
6. Present uncertain information as certain.
7. Reflect bias contained in training data or source materials.
8. Fail to understand context, humor, urgency, emotion, or intent.
9. Produce different answers to the same question.

10. Generate content that is inappropriate for a particular user or purpose.

An AI response should never be considered verified solely because it includes citations, technical language, professional formatting, detailed reasoning, or a confident tone.

HUMAN VERIFICATION REQUIRED

Users must independently review and verify important information before relying on it.

Human verification may include:

1. Opening and reading the original source.
2. Confirming that a quoted source actually exists.
3. Checking the publication date.
4. Confirming that laws and regulations remain current.
5. Comparing multiple reliable sources.
6. Consulting a qualified professional.
7. Testing code in a safe environment.
8. Confirming calculations.
9. Reviewing documents in full rather than relying on a summary.
10. Confirming that a link points to the expected destination.

The level of verification should increase with the importance, cost, risk, urgency, or potential impact of the decision.

USER RESPONSIBILITY

You are responsible for decisions, actions, purchases, filings, communications, publications, implementations, and other conduct resulting from your use of our products or services.

You agree to use reasonable judgment and to consider:

1. The reliability of the source.
2. The age of the information.
3. The qualifications of the author.
4. The possibility of AI error.
5. Your own facts and circumstances.
6. Conflicting information.
7. Applicable laws and professional standards.
8. The consequences of being wrong.

You should not blindly follow any AI output, prompt, search result, link, report, recommendation, or third-party content.

ACCURACY AND COMPLETENESS

We attempt to provide useful information, but we do not guarantee that all information is accurate, complete, current, consistent, original, secure, available, or suitable for every purpose.

Information may become outdated because of changes in:

1. Laws and regulations.

2. Government procedures.
3. Product specifications.
4. Prices.
5. Business ownership.
6. Employment roles.
7. Websites and links.
8. Research findings.
9. Technology.
10. Medical knowledge.
11. Market conditions.

We are not obligated to update every previously published page, book, report, answer, prompt, or link immediately after information changes.

ERRORS AND CORRECTIONS

Our publications, websites, software, reports, links, and digital resources may contain typographical, factual, formatting, coding, technical, production, printing, or other errors.

We may correct, update, supplement, remove, or replace content at any time.

Corrections may be made through:

1. A revised website page.
2. An updated link destination.
3. A new digital version.
4. A future printing or edition.
5. An errata notice.
6. A corrected report.

The fact that a correction is made does not create an obligation to recall, replace, or refund every previously distributed physical product unless required by law or expressly promised by us.

SOURCE AVAILABILITY

References, citations, links, videos, articles, government records, search results, and third-party resources may become unavailable, restricted, changed, deleted, moved, or placed behind a paywall.

We do not guarantee continuing access to a particular third-party source.

When practical, we may replace an unavailable source with another resource, but we are not obligated to locate or provide a replacement for every unavailable item.

NO ENDORSEMENT

Unless expressly stated in writing, the appearance of a third-party name, product, company, link, website, book, video, artist, public figure, organization, brand, or service does not constitute endorsement, sponsorship, partnership, authorization, or affiliation.

Likewise, reference to our products by another person or company does not necessarily mean that we endorse that person or company.

USER EXPECTATIONS

Users understand that our services may involve research, organization, navigation, automation, interpretation, summarization, or AI assistance rather than independent verification of every fact.

Unless expressly stated in a separate written agreement, we do not promise:

1. A specific research result.
2. A specific number of sources.
3. A particular legal, medical, financial, or business outcome.
4. Continuous availability of every link.
5. Permanent support for every technology.
6. Human review of every output.
7. That a third party will respond or perform.
8. That every user will interpret information in the same way.

This limitation applies regardless of whether a claim is based on contract, warranty, tort, negligence, strict liability, statute, equity, misrepresentation, or another legal theory, and even if the possibility of damages was known or reasonably foreseeable.

MAXIMUM AGGREGATE LIABILITY

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF BLUE LINE TECH HELP LLC ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO A PRODUCT, SERVICE, TRANSACTION, OR THESE TERMS WILL NOT EXCEED THE GREATER OF:

1. THE AMOUNT YOU PAID DIRECTLY TO BLUE LINE TECH HELP LLC FOR THE SPECIFIC PRODUCT OR SERVICE GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM DURING THE SIX MONTHS BEFORE THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM; OR

2. ONE HUNDRED UNITED STATES DOLLARS.

This limitation does not apply to liability that cannot lawfully be limited.

Amounts paid to unrelated retailers, marketplaces, payment providers, advertisers, or other third parties are not considered amounts paid directly to Blue Line Tech Help LLC unless the Company actually received and retained those amounts for the applicable product or service.

PHYSICAL PRODUCTS

For claims involving a physical product purchased directly from us, any available remedy may be limited, where permitted by law, to:

1. Repair.
2. Replacement.
3. Refund of the direct purchase price.
4. Another remedy expressly required by applicable law.

Claims involving products purchased from a third-party retailer may also be subject to that retailer's return, refund, warranty, and dispute procedures.

EXCLUSIONS FROM LIABILITY LIMITATIONS

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability for:

1. Fraud or intentional misrepresentation by the Company.
2. Willful misconduct by the Company.
3. Personal injury caused by negligence where liability cannot legally be limited.
4. Violation of a right that cannot lawfully be waived.
5. Any other liability that applicable law prohibits us from excluding or limiting.

ALLOCATION OF RISK

The warranty disclaimers and liability limitations in these Terms are an essential part of the agreement between you and Blue Line Tech Help LLC.

They reflect the fact that many products and services are provided at low cost or without charge and may rely upon third-party platforms, public information, automated systems, AI tools, internet connections, and changing technology.

INDEMNIFICATION

To the fullest extent permitted by law, you agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Blue Line Tech Help LLC and its owners, members, managers, officers, employees, contractors, agents, affiliates, licensors, suppliers, publishers, distributors, and service providers from claims, liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, penalties, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees arising from or relating to:

1. Your violation of these Terms.
2. Your unlawful or unauthorized use of a product or service.
3. Your user submissions.
4. Your infringement or violation of another person's rights.
5. Your violation of law.
6. Information or instructions you provide to us.
7. Your publication, distribution, implementation, or use of AI-assisted content.
8. Your use of our resources in connection with a business, client, employee, customer, patient, legal matter, or third party.
9. Your alteration or misuse of a QR code, short link, report, prompt, publication, or Company brand.

This indemnification obligation does not apply to the extent a claim results directly from the Company's own conduct for which indemnification may not lawfully be required.

We may assume control of the defense of a covered claim. You agree to provide reasonable cooperation and not settle a claim in a manner that imposes liability, admissions, or obligations upon us without our written consent.

RELEASE CONCERNING THIRD PARTIES

To the fullest extent permitted by law, you release Blue Line Tech Help LLC from claims arising solely from disputes between you and a third party identified, linked, referenced, advertised, or discovered through our products or services.

This may include disputes with:

SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

We may suspend, limit, disable, or terminate access to a website, account, subscription, short link, QR code destination, iPortal Page, digital product, AI service, or other resource when reasonably necessary and .

Reasons may include:

1. Violation of these Terms.
2. Failure to pay required fees.
3. Fraud or suspected fraud.
4. Security concerns.
5. Abusive or unlawful use.
6. Intellectual property concerns.
7. Legal or regulatory requirements.
8. Third-party platform changes.
9. Discontinuation of a product or service.
10. Threats to users, the Company, or the public.

Where reasonably practical, we may provide notice. However, we may act without advance notice when immediate action is reasonably necessary.

EFFECT OF TERMINATION

When access ends:

1. Your right to use restricted products or services ends.
2. You must stop using confidential, licensed, or subscription-only materials.
3. You remain responsible for amounts lawfully owed.
4. Provisions intended by their nature to survive will continue.

Surviving provisions may include intellectual property, disclaimers, liability limitations, indemnification, dispute resolution, payment obligations, and governing law.

Termination of digital access does not prevent you from retaining a lawfully purchased physical publication, but the associated digital features may no longer be available.

REFUNDS AFTER TERMINATION

Suspension or termination resulting from a user's material violation of these Terms may result in loss of access without a refund to the extent permitted by law and the applicable purchase terms.

When we discontinue a prepaid service for business reasons unrelated to user misconduct, we may provide a prorated refund, credit, replacement service, or other reasonable remedy where required by law or stated in the applicable product terms.

COMPLAINTS AND CUSTOMER SUPPORT

We encourage users to contact us promptly regarding concerns involving products, charges, accounts, content, links, publications, privacy, or services.

A complaint should include:

1. Your name and contact information.
2. The product, service, order, account, page, or link involved.
3. A clear description of the problem.
4. Relevant dates.
5. The resolution you are requesting.
6. Supporting documents or screenshots when appropriate.

Customer-support communications do not waive these Terms or create a binding promise unless an authorized Company representative clearly confirms the promise in writing.

INFORMAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Before filing a lawsuit or arbitration, you and Blue Line Tech Help LLC agree to make a reasonable good-faith effort to resolve the dispute informally.

The party raising the dispute must send a written Notice of Dispute containing:

1. The person's or company's full legal name.
2. Contact information.
3. The relevant account, order, or transaction information.
4. A detailed description of the dispute.
5. The legal and factual basis of the claim.
6. The specific relief requested.

Notices to Blue Line Tech Help LLC must be sent to:

Notice of Dispute

Blue Line Tech Help LLC

Form found at iShortLinks.com/TermsOfUseAndMoreInfo

The parties agree to allow at least sixty days after receipt of a complete Notice of Dispute to attempt informal resolution before starting arbitration or litigation, unless a shorter period is required by law or immediate injunctive relief is reasonably necessary.

Any applicable limitations period will be suspended during this sixty-day informal-resolution period to the extent permitted by law.

BINDING INDIVIDUAL ARBITRATIONPLEASE READ THIS SECTION CAREFULLY. IT AFFECTS YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS.

Except for disputes specifically excluded below, you and Blue Line Tech Help LLC agree that any dispute, claim, or controversy arising out of or relating to these Terms, our products, services, websites, publications, transactions, communications, or the relationship between you and the Company will be resolved through final and binding individual arbitration rather than in court.

This agreement to arbitrate is intended to be interpreted broadly.

It includes claims based on:

1. Contract.
2. Warranty.
3. Tort.
4. Negligence.
5. Misrepresentation.
6. Statute.
7. Consumer-protection law.
8. Privacy law.
9. Intellectual property law.
10. Equity.
11. Any other legal theory.

ARBITRATION ADMINISTRATOR AND RULES

Unless the parties agree otherwise, arbitration will be administered by the American Arbitration Association under its applicable Consumer Arbitration Rules or Commercial Arbitration Rules, depending on the nature of the dispute and the parties involved.

The applicable rules and filing information are available from the arbitration administrator.

If the American Arbitration Association is unable or unwilling to administer the dispute, the parties will attempt to agree upon another recognized arbitration administrator. If they cannot agree, a court with jurisdiction may appoint an administrator or arbitrator as permitted by law.

ARBITRATION LOCATION AND FORMAT

Consumer arbitration may be conducted:

1. By documents only.
2. By telephone.
3. By videoconference.
4. In person in a reasonably convenient location.

5. Through another format authorized by the applicable rules.

The arbitrator will determine the appropriate format after considering the nature of the claim, the amount involved, the parties' locations, and applicable rules.

Unless required otherwise by consumer-protection law, in-person arbitration involving a business user will take place in Hillsborough County, Florida.

ARBITRATION FEES

Payment of arbitration filing, administrative, and arbitrator fees will be governed by the applicable arbitration rules and fee schedule.

Where consumer arbitration rules apply, Blue Line Tech Help LLC will pay fees the Company is required to pay under those rules.

Each party will generally be responsible for its own attorneys' fees unless a statute, rule, contract, or arbitration award provides otherwise.

AUTHORITY OF THE ARBITRATOR

The arbitrator may award the same individual relief that a court could award, including monetary damages, declaratory relief, and injunctive relief, subject to these Terms and applicable law.

The arbitrator must provide a written decision explaining the essential findings and conclusions supporting the award.

The arbitrator may resolve disputes concerning the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, or formation of this arbitration agreement, except that a court will determine disputes concerning the class-action waiver to the extent required by law.

Judgment on an arbitration award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

EXCEPTIONS TO ARBITRATION

Either party may bring an individual claim in small-claims court if the claim qualifies and remains only in that court.

Either party may also seek temporary or preliminary injunctive relief in a court when reasonably necessary to prevent immediate:

1. Intellectual property infringement.
2. Unauthorized system access.
3. Security threats.
4. Misuse of confidential information.
5. Fraudulent or malicious use of QR codes, short links, domains, or Company branding.
6. Irreparable harm that cannot reasonably await arbitration.

Seeking temporary relief does not waive the requirement to arbitrate the remaining dispute.

Claims that applicable law expressly prohibits from being arbitrated are also excluded to the extent of that prohibition.

NO CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE ACTIONS

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, YOU AND BLUE LINE TECH HELP LLC AGREE THAT EACH PARTY MAY BRING CLAIMS ONLY IN AN INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY.

Neither party may bring or participate in a:

1. Class action.
2. Collective action.
3. Representative action.
4. Private-attorney-general action.
5. Consolidated arbitration involving unrelated persons.

The arbitrator may award relief only to the individual party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to resolve that party's individual claim.

If a final court decision determines that a particular request for public injunctive relief cannot lawfully be waived or arbitrated on an individual basis, that request may be separated and decided by a court after all arbitrable claims are completed.

MASS ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

If twenty-five or more substantially similar arbitration demands are submitted against the Company by or with the assistance of the same or coordinated counsel, organization, or group, the claims may be treated as coordinated filings to the extent permitted by the applicable arbitration rules.

The parties will work in good faith with the arbitration administrator concerning reasonable batching, bellwether, mediation, scheduling, fee, and case-management procedures.

This provision is intended to promote efficient resolution and does not eliminate any claimant's individual rights or remedies.

JURY-TRIAL WAIVER

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, YOU AND BLUE LINE TECH HELP LLC WAIVE THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY FOR DISPUTES REQUIRED TO BE ARBITRATED.

For disputes properly brought in court rather than arbitration, each party also waives a jury trial to the extent that waiver is legally enforceable.

ARBITRATION OPT-OUT

You may opt out of the binding-arbitration and class-action-waiver provisions by sending written notice within thirty days after the date you first accept these Terms.

The opt-out notice must include:

1. Your full legal name.
2. Your mailing address.
3. Your email address.
4. Any relevant account information.
5. A clear statement that you are opting out of binding arbitration.
6. Your signature.

Send the opt-out notice to:

Arbitration Opt-Out

Blue Line Tech Help LLC

Form found at iShortLinks.com/TermsOfUseAndMoreInfo

Opting out of arbitration will not affect any other provision of these Terms.

An opt-out applies only to the individual or entity that timely submitted the notice and only to the applicable acceptance of these Terms.

CHANGES TO ARBITRATION TERMS

If we make a material change to this arbitration section after you have accepted it, the change will not apply to a dispute for which we received a complete Notice of Dispute before the effective date of the change.

We may provide additional opt-out rights where required by law.

GOVERNING LAW

These Terms and disputes arising from them are governed by the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to conflict-of-law rules, except to the extent federal law applies or applicable consumer law requires another result.

The Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of the arbitration agreement to the extent applicable.

COURT VENUE

For any dispute permitted to proceed in court rather than arbitration, the parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the appropriate state or federal courts located in or serving Hillsborough County, Florida, unless applicable law requires another venue.

Each party waives objections based on personal jurisdiction, venue, or inconvenient forum to the extent legally permitted.

TIME LIMIT FOR CLAIMS

To the fullest extent permitted by law, any claim arising from these Terms or our products or services must be filed within one year after the claim arose.

A claim not filed within that period is permanently barred.

This shortened period does not apply where applicable law prohibits shortening the limitations period or provides a nonwaivable period.

NOTICES

We may provide notices through:

1. Email.
2. An account notification.
3. A website notice.
4. A product or service interface.
5. Postal mail.
6. Another reasonable electronic method.

Notices are effective when sent, posted, or otherwise made available, unless applicable law requires another effective date.

WAIVER

A failure or delay by Blue Line Tech Help LLC to enforce a provision does not waive the right to enforce that provision later.

A waiver is effective only when clearly stated in writing by an authorized Company representative.

A waiver concerning one event does not waive another event.

SEVERABILITY

If any provision of these Terms is found invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law.

If necessary, the invalid portion will be severed or modified as narrowly as possible while preserving the original intent.

The remaining provisions will continue in full force and effect.

If the class-action waiver is found unenforceable for a particular claim or request for relief, the treatment of that claim will be governed by the dispute-resolution provisions above and applicable law.

INTERNATIONAL USERS

Our websites and services may be accessible from locations outside the United States.

We do not represent that every product, service, feature, publication, link, promotion, or transaction is lawful or appropriate in every jurisdiction.

You are responsible for:

1. Complying with local laws.
2. Determining whether a product or service may be lawfully accessed or purchased.
3. Paying applicable taxes, duties, and fees.
4. Complying with import, export, sanctions, and data-transfer rules.
5. Determining whether professional, educational, or regulatory information applies in your jurisdiction.

We may restrict access, purchases, shipping, accounts, or services in certain countries, regions, or territories.

EXPORT CONTROLS AND SANCTIONS

You may not use, export, re-export, transfer, or provide our products, software, technology, or services in violation of United States export-control, sanctions, embargo, or trade laws.

You represent that you are not prohibited from receiving the applicable products or services under relevant trade restrictions.

CHANGES TO PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

We may improve, update, redesign, rename, combine, replace, restrict, suspend, or discontinue products, services, plans, features, publications, domains, links, or technologies.

We do not guarantee that:

1. A feature will remain available indefinitely.
2. A product will retain the same name.
3. A third-party integration will continue.
4. A particular domain will always be used.
5. Every older device or browser will remain supported.
6. Every digital resource will remain free.

Where required by law or an applicable paid-service agreement, we will provide notice or an appropriate remedy.

CHANGES TO THESE TERMS

We may revise these Terms to reflect changes in:

1. Products and services.
2. Business operations.

3. Technology.
4. Security practices.
5. Legal or regulatory requirements.
6. Industry standards.
7. Dispute-resolution procedures.

The revised Terms will include an updated effective date.

Material changes may be communicated through email, an account notification, a website notice, or another reasonable method.

Your continued use after revised Terms become effective constitutes acceptance where permitted by law.

If you do not agree to revised Terms, you must discontinue the affected products or services.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Certain products, services, software, digital resources, iPortal Pages, AI tools, research services, memberships, or content collections may be offered through a recurring subscription.

Subscription features, limits, prices, billing periods, renewal terms, included services, and usage restrictions will be described on the applicable product page, order page, checkout page, subscription agreement, or other purchase disclosure.

By purchasing a subscription, you authorize Blue Line Tech Help LLC and its payment processor to charge the applicable subscription fees, taxes, and disclosed charges to your selected payment method.

Subscription plans may differ based on:

1. Available content.
2. Number of authorized users.
3. Usage limits.
4. Research limits.
5. Storage limits.
6. AI features.
7. Download permissions.
8. Support levels.
9. Commercial-use rights.
10. Access to premium or restricted resources.

You may use only the features included in your purchased plan.

AUTOMATIC RENEWAL

If a subscription is identified as automatically renewing, it will continue renewing for the disclosed billing period until canceled.

By enrolling in an automatically renewing subscription, you authorize recurring charges to your payment method at the beginning of each renewal period without requiring a separate authorization for every charge.

Automatic-renewal disclosures may include:

1. The amount charged or the method used to determine the amount.
2. The frequency of billing.

3. The length of the renewal period.
4. The date or approximate date of the next charge.
5. Whether a promotional or trial price will change.
6. How to cancel.
7. Any applicable cancellation deadline.

Renewal terms presented during checkout, account registration, or subscription enrollment are incorporated into these Terms.

Where required by applicable law, we will provide renewal reminders or other notices before an automatic renewal or cancellation deadline.

MONTHLY SUBSCRIPTIONS

A monthly subscription generally renews each month on or near the calendar date on which the subscription began.

Billing dates may shift because of:

1. Shorter months.
2. Weekends or holidays.
3. Payment-processing delays.
4. Failed payments.
5. Account changes.
6. Subscription upgrades or downgrades.

Canceling a monthly subscription generally stops future renewals but does not automatically refund the current billing period unless required by law or expressly stated in the applicable refund policy.

ANNUAL AND LONGER-TERM SUBSCRIPTIONS

An annual or longer-term subscription may be billed in advance for the full subscription period.

If the subscription automatically renews, it may renew for another annual or disclosed term unless canceled before the applicable renewal or cancellation deadline.

Where required by law, we may send a written or electronic reminder before an annual or longer-term automatic renewal.

You are responsible for reviewing renewal notices and keeping your contact information current.

FREE TRIALS AND PROMOTIONAL PERIODS

We may offer free trials, discounted introductory periods, promotional subscriptions, limited demonstrations, or temporary access.

Trial terms may specify:

1. The length of the trial.
2. The features included.
3. Usage restrictions.
4. Whether payment information is required.
5. Whether the trial converts automatically into a paid subscription.
6. The price charged after the trial.
7. The deadline and method for cancellation.

If a trial automatically converts into a paid subscription, the applicable disclosure will be provided before enrollment.

You must cancel before the disclosed deadline to avoid the first paid charge.

Unless otherwise stated, free trials are limited to one trial per person, household, organization, payment method, or account.

We may terminate or restrict a trial if we reasonably believe that a user is attempting to obtain repeated or unauthorized promotional access.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE CHANGES

We may change subscription prices, features, limits, or plan structures.

A price change will not ordinarily affect an already completed billing period.

For recurring subscriptions, a price change may take effect at a future renewal after reasonable notice where required or appropriate.

If you do not agree to the new price, you must cancel before the new price takes effect.

Continuing the subscription after the effective date of a disclosed price change constitutes acceptance of the new price to the extent permitted by law.

SUBSCRIPTION UPGRADES

You may be permitted to upgrade a subscription to a higher plan.

An upgrade may:

1. Take effect immediately.
2. Result in a prorated charge.
3. Begin a new billing cycle.
4. Replace the previous subscription plan.
5. Change available features and usage limits.

The specific price and effective date will be disclosed during the upgrade process.

SUBSCRIPTION DOWNGRADES

You may be permitted to downgrade a subscription to a lower plan.

Unless otherwise stated, a downgrade may take effect at the end of the current paid billing period.

A downgrade may result in:

1. Loss of access to premium content.
2. Reduced usage limits.
3. Reduced storage.
4. Loss of team or user seats.
5. Loss of commercial-use rights.
6. Loss of advanced AI or research features.
7. Deletion or inaccessibility of content exceeding the lower plan's limits.

You are responsible for exporting or preserving information you wish to retain before a downgrade takes effect.

CANCELING A SUBSCRIPTION

You may cancel an automatically renewing subscription using the method disclosed during enrollment, in your account, on the applicable subscription page, or through customer support.

Available cancellation methods may include:

1. An online account-cancellation feature.
2. A subscription-management page.
3. Emailing customer support.
4. Submitting an online cancellation form.
5. Contacting the third-party marketplace through which the subscription was purchased.

A cancellation is not complete until it is successfully submitted and, where applicable, confirmed.

You should retain any cancellation confirmation for your records.

Deleting an application, removing a bookmark, stopping use of a service, or ignoring billing notices does not necessarily cancel a subscription.

If you purchased through a third-party marketplace, app store, retailer, reseller, or platform, you may be required to cancel directly through that third party.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF CANCELLATION

Unless otherwise disclosed or required by law, cancellation generally takes effect at the end of the current paid subscription period.

You may continue using included features until the end of that period, subject to these Terms.

We may offer immediate cancellation in some circumstances. Immediate cancellation may result in loss of access before the end of the billing period and may not result in a refund unless one is expressly offered or legally required.

PAYMENT AUTHORIZATION

By providing a payment method, you represent that:

1. You are authorized to use it.
2. The billing information is accurate.
3. You authorize the disclosed charges.
4. You will keep the payment information reasonably current.

You authorize us and our payment processors to:

1. Verify the payment method.
2. Request payment authorization.
3. Charge applicable fees and taxes.
4. Retry failed recurring charges.
5. Use an updated payment credential provided through a payment-network account-updater service where permitted.

FAILED OR DECLINED PAYMENTS

If a payment is declined, reversed, disputed, expired, or otherwise unsuccessful, we may:

1. Retry the payment.
2. Request an updated payment method.
3. Restrict subscription features.
4. Suspend access.
5. Terminate the subscription.
6. Recover amounts lawfully owed.

You remain responsible for valid charges incurred before cancellation or termination.

We are not responsible for bank fees, overdraft charges, currency-conversion fees, interest, or other charges imposed by your financial institution or payment provider.

CHARGEBACKS AND PAYMENT DISPUTES

If you believe a charge is incorrect, please contact us promptly so we can investigate.

Submitting a chargeback or payment dispute does not automatically cancel an active subscription.

If you initiate a chargeback involving a valid charge, we may:

1. Provide transaction and account records to the payment provider.
2. Suspend or terminate the related account.
3. Restrict future transactions.
4. Recover unpaid amounts and reasonable costs where permitted by law.

Nothing in this section limits your lawful right to dispute unauthorized or incorrect charges.

REFUND POLICY

Refund eligibility depends on the product, service, purchase channel, applicable law, and refund terms disclosed at the time of purchase.

Unless a different written policy applies, requests for refunds should be submitted promptly and include:

1. The purchaser's name.
2. The order or transaction number.
3. The product or service involved.
4. The purchase date.
5. The reason for the request.
6. Supporting photographs or documents when relevant.

Submitting a refund request does not guarantee approval.

DIGITAL-PRODUCT REFUNDS

Because digital products may be accessed, viewed, downloaded, copied, or delivered immediately, digital-product sales may be final once access or delivery occurs, except where:

1. The product was not delivered.
2. The file is materially defective.
3. The wrong product was delivered.
4. A refund is expressly offered.
5. Applicable law requires a refund.

We may request reasonable information to verify a technical problem before issuing a refund.

A user's inability to open a file because of unsupported equipment, outdated software, insufficient storage, security settings, or lack of internet access does not automatically create a right to a refund when the product requirements were reasonably disclosed.

RESEARCH-SERVICE REFUNDS

Research services involve time, labor, technology expenses, and resource use.

Unless otherwise stated:

1. A full refund may be unavailable after work has begun.
2. A partial refund may reflect work already completed.
3. No refund is guaranteed merely because the research does not produce the result a user hoped to receive.
4. No refund is guaranteed because available sources are incomplete, restricted, contradictory, or unavailable.
5. Corrections may be offered when a deliverable contains a material error attributable to us.

If we are unable to complete a paid research service for reasons within our control, we may provide a refund, partial refund, credit, revised deliverable, or replacement service as appropriate.

PHYSICAL-PRODUCT RETURNS

Physical products purchased directly from us may be eligible for return according to the return policy disclosed at the time of purchase.

A return may be denied or reduced when a product is:

1. Used beyond reasonable inspection.
2. Damaged after delivery.
3. Altered, marked, written in, or personalized.
4. Missing components.
5. Returned after the applicable deadline.
6. Purchased through a third party.

Books or workbooks containing writing, highlighting, personalization, or physical alteration may not be returnable unless defective when received or otherwise required by law.

DAMAGED OR INCORRECT SHIPMENTS

If a physical product purchased directly from us arrives damaged, defective, or materially different from the item ordered, contact us promptly.

We may request:

1. Photographs of the item.
2. Photographs of the packaging.
3. The order number.
4. A description of the problem.
5. Return of the affected product.

Depending on the circumstances, we may provide a replacement, refund, credit, correction, or other appropriate remedy.

Shipping damage involving third-party retailers or fulfillment providers may need to be reported directly to the seller or carrier.

SHIPPING

Shipping estimates are estimates and are not guaranteed delivery dates unless expressly stated otherwise.

Delivery may be affected by:

1. Carrier delays.
2. Weather.
3. Natural disasters.

4. Incorrect addresses.
5. Customs processing.
6. Inventory shortages.
7. Printing delays.
8. Holiday volume.
9. Events beyond our reasonable control.

You are responsible for providing an accurate and deliverable shipping address.

Additional shipping charges may apply if a package is returned because of an incorrect address, refusal, failed delivery, or failure to collect the package.

RISK OF LOSS

Risk of loss and title for physical products may transfer according to applicable law, the purchase terms, and the policies of the seller or shipping provider.

For products purchased through a third party, that third party's shipping and risk-of-loss terms apply.

SOFTWARE AND WEB APPLICATIONS

Our services may include software, web applications, account dashboards, browser-based tools, scripts, downloadable applications, APIs, or other technology.

Software is licensed rather than sold unless expressly stated otherwise.

Subject to these Terms, we grant authorized users a limited, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable, and non-sublicensable license to use the software for its intended purpose during the authorized access period.

You may not:

1. Copy or distribute the software except as expressly permitted.
2. Modify or create derivative works from the software.
3. Reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble the software.
4. Attempt to obtain source code or nonpublic system architecture.
5. Remove proprietary notices.
6. Rent, lease, sublicense, resell, or provide unauthorized access.
7. Use the software to build a competing product.
8. Use the software in violation of usage limits or applicable law.

SOFTWARE UPDATES

We may release software updates, patches, revisions, corrections, new versions, or security improvements.

Updates may:

1. Install automatically.
2. Change available features.
3. Remove outdated features.
4. Require acceptance of revised terms.

5. Require a supported browser, operating system, or device.

Continued use may require installing or accepting updates.

We do not guarantee continued support for every older software version, device, browser, or operating system.

APPLICATION PROGRAMMING INTERFACES

If we provide access to an application programming interface, or API, that access may be subject to additional documentation, credentials, rate limits, security requirements, and license terms.

You may not:

1. Share private API credentials.
2. Exceed disclosed rate limits.
3. Use an API to extract or replicate substantial portions of our databases.
4. Use an API to interfere with our systems.
5. Misrepresent the source of data.
6. Use an API for unlawful surveillance, profiling, spam, fraud, or abuse.

We may change, restrict, meter, suspend, or discontinue API access.

MOBILE APPLICATIONS

If we offer a mobile application, you are responsible for obtaining a compatible device, operating system, data plan, and app-store account.

Your use may also be subject to the terms and policies of the applicable app store, device manufacturer, mobile carrier, or operating-system provider.

Those third parties are not responsible for Company products or services except to the extent required by their own terms or applicable law.

LOCATION-BASED FEATURES

Some services may use location information when permission is provided.

Location information may be inaccurate or unavailable because of:

1. Device limitations.
2. Signal conditions.
3. Indoor use.
4. Network routing.
5. User settings.
6. Outdated maps.
7. Third-party data errors.

Location features are not guaranteed to provide precise, continuous, or real-time location information and should not be used as the sole basis for emergency, personal-safety, navigation, rescue, or law-enforcement decisions.

BETA, TEST, AND EXPERIMENTAL SERVICES

We may offer beta, preview, pilot, early-access, experimental, prototype, demonstration, or testing services.

These services may:

1. Contain errors or incomplete features.

2. Produce unreliable results.
3. Change without notice.
4. Experience interruptions.
5. Lose or corrupt data.
6. Be discontinued at any time.
7. Be subject to additional confidentiality or testing terms.

Beta and experimental services should not be used for mission-critical, safety-critical, regulated, or production purposes unless we expressly authorize that use in writing.

AI MODEL AND PROVIDER CHANGES

AI features may rely on third-party models, platforms, APIs, data providers, or technology services.

AI providers may change:

1. Model capabilities.
2. Pricing.
3. Usage limits.
4. Terms.
5. Privacy practices.
6. Safety restrictions.
7. Availability.
8. Supported countries or languages.

We may replace, add, remove, or modify an AI provider or model without guaranteeing identical outputs or functionality.

AI USAGE LIMITS

AI and research plans may include limits based on:

1. Number of requests.
2. Characters or words.
3. Tokens.
4. File sizes.
5. Processing time.
6. Research depth.
7. Number of documents.
8. Number of users.
9. Computational cost.

We may impose reasonable limits to protect security, availability, performance, cost, and fair access.

Attempts to avoid or circumvent usage limits may result in restriction, additional charges where disclosed, suspension, or termination.

COMMERCIAL USE

Some products and plans are licensed only for personal or internal business use.

Commercial use may require a separate plan or written license.

Commercial use may include:

1. Reselling access or content.
2. Providing content to paying clients.
3. Embedding resources in a commercial product.
4. Using materials as part of a paid consulting service.
5. Distributing Company-created reports to a large organization.
6. Operating a service bureau or shared-access system.

Unless expressly authorized, purchasing one copy or one user license does not grant organization-wide, client-wide, reseller, white-label, or redistribution rights.

TEAM AND BUSINESS ACCOUNTS

Business or team subscriptions may allow an administrator to add, remove, manage, or monitor authorized users.

The purchasing organization is responsible for:

1. Authorizing users.
2. Removing users who no longer require access.
3. Maintaining account security.
4. Ensuring users comply with these Terms.
5. Paying applicable fees.
6. Managing information submitted through the account.

An organization administrator may have access to certain account, usage, billing, or user information associated with the organization's subscription.

Individual users should not assume that activity within a business-managed account is private from the account administrator.

RESELLERS AND REFERRAL PARTNERS

Authorized resellers, referral partners, affiliates, consultants, agents, and distributors may be subject to separate written agreements.

No person or company may represent itself as an authorized reseller, partner, agent, or representative without written authorization.

Unless expressly authorized, a reseller or referral partner may not:

1. Modify our Terms or warranties.
2. Make guarantees on our behalf.
3. Bind the Company to a contract.
4. Use our branding deceptively.
5. Copy or redistribute restricted materials.
6. Misrepresent pricing, features, or affiliation.

BOOK ACCESS CODES

A publication may contain an access code, registration code, QR code, short link, password, or other method of accessing digital resources.

An access code may be:

1. Limited to one user.
2. Limited to one account.
3. Limited to a specific publication.
4. Limited by time.
5. Restricted to noncommercial use.
6. Subject to registration.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, an access code may not be sold separately, publicly posted, copied in bulk, or shared with unauthorized users.

A used book may not include transferable or unused digital access.

The purchase of a used publication does not guarantee access to digital resources that were licensed only to the original purchaser.

NOTES AND USER WRITING IN BOOKS

Some publications include spaces for notes, answers, dedications, names, messages, or other user writing.

Blue Line Tech Help LLC is not responsible for:

1. Personal information written in a book.
2. Loss or disclosure of handwritten notes.
3. Content added by a purchaser, reader, reseller, or gift recipient.
4. Statements written in a used or transferred copy.

Users should avoid writing highly sensitive information in a publication that may be lost, shared, gifted, donated, or resold.

GIFT PURCHASES

A purchaser may give a physical publication to another person.

The recipient's access to associated digital services may be subject to:

1. Account registration.
2. Age requirements.
3. Access-code restrictions.
4. Subscription requirements.
5. Geographic availability.
6. These Terms.

The purchaser is responsible for obtaining permission before providing the recipient's personal information to us for shipping, personalization, account creation, or marketing.

PERSONALIZED PRODUCTS

Personalized, customized, signed, dedicated, printed-on-demand, or specially produced products may not be cancelable or returnable after production begins, except where defective or otherwise required by law.

You are responsible for reviewing names, spelling, dates, images, text, and other customization instructions before submitting the order.

We are not responsible for an error contained in user-approved or user-submitted customization information.

PUBLICATION EDITIONS AND PRINTINGS

Different editions, formats, and printings of a publication may contain differences in:

1. Page count.
2. Layout.
3. Cover design.
4. Typography.
5. Links.
6. QR codes.
7. Images.
8. Prompts.
9. Disclosures.
10. Corrections.
11. Digital features.

A later printing or edition does not automatically entitle the owner of an earlier printing to a replacement, upgrade, refund, or new physical copy.

ARCHIVAL AND HISTORICAL CONTENT

Some publications and digital resources may discuss past events, historical prices, discontinued products, former officeholders, older technology, prior laws, or historical cultural materials.

Historical content should be understood in its stated time period and may not describe current conditions.

We may preserve older materials for historical or archival purposes even when newer information becomes available.

Blue Line Tech Help LLC seeks to make its websites, products, services, and digital resources reasonably accessible to users with disabilities.

Printed books have inherent physical limitations involving font size, page dimensions, contrast, layout, paper, and binding.
